REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Claims 2-24 are considered allowable since when reading the claims in light of the specification, none of the references of record alone or in combination disclose or suggest the combination of limitations specified in the independent claims. As to claims 2-13, the prior art of record does not teach retrieving, from a mass storage device in response to a program request from a user, respective segments of at least one of a variable bit rate (VBR) program stream, the VBR and CLBR bitstream segments comprising information associated with a common program to be served via a communications link; and providing at least one of the VBR and CLBR program stream segments to a communications link adapted to serve the requesting user in accordance with bandwidth indicia. As to claims 14-24, the prior art of record does not teach retrieving, from a mass storage device in response to a program request from a user, respective segments of at least one of a variable bit rate (VBR) program stream and a constant low bit rate (CLBR) program stream; and providing at least one of a the VBR and the CLBR program stream segments to a communications link adapted to serve the requesting user in accordance with bandwidth availability indicia; the VBR program stream comprising a second plurality of CLBR bit stream segments, the VBR and CLBR program streams comprising information associated with the requested program.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
